Statue in honour of Wimalasurendra

The welfare society of Wimalasurendra Hydropower Station at Norton Bridge recently erected a statue of the late Engineer D.J. Wimalasurendra who introduced hydropower to the country. The statue in the Norton Bridge town was recently unveiled by General Manager of the Ceylon Electricity Board Ranjith Fonseka. Pictured here is the General Manager paying floral tributes to the statue. (Picture from G. Gamarachchi- Ginigathena correspondent)
