

27th February 2017 - Daily Mirror.

Colombo Int'l Financial City work in progress

Backhoes, excavators and other heavy machinery are seen at the site where land is being reclaimed from the sea to develop the Chinese-funded Colombo International Financial City, which was earlier known as the Colombo Port City. The work on the project was stopped for a brief period after the present government came into power. It was restarted following a tripartite agreement in the latter part of the last year.

PIC BY PRADEEP PATHIRANA