

Techno 2008 begins October 17

RAMANI
KANGARAARACHCI

The Techno 2008, National Engineering and Technology Exhibition organised by the Institute of Engineers Sri Lanka (IESL) will be held at the BMICH from October 17 to 19, 2008.

Chairman Techno Ranjith Rubasinghe said the exhibition is nourished with a number of special segments, such as Vidatha in association with the Ministry of Science and Technology, a Robot Competition with young members of

General Manager SLT Rainbow Pages, P.M.P. Balapitiya handing over the cheque to President IESL Ranjith Gunawardena. Chairman Techno Ranjith Rubasinghe looks on. Picture by Sumanachandra Ariyawansa

Daily News - 12/08/08

IESL and junior inventors. There will be National Inter school Engineering and Technology Quiz programme, National Engineering Summit and Techno Engineering Awards as parallel events. There will be a special stall for Nano Technology this year at the exhibition.

Chairman IESL Ranjith Gunawardena said engineers in Sri Lanka have done a lot for the country although not publicised in the media.

Rainbow Pages will be the principal sponsor.

